- Miss x has been a wonderful teacher and our son has had a lovely introduction to school life.
- Good school helpful
- It was a totally new school for our little girl and she missed the company of her friends from her nursery. But from the word go, she has enjoyed being at Stowlawn and I have felt safe to leave her in the hands of the staff here. She has also come on and progressed in leaps and bounds-Made lots of friends, including her teachers.
- Grandparents said this boy worries sometimes
- I'm happy with how my son is being taught and I'm also happy with his progress
- Good school, very helpful
- He improved a lot of his work, some things that he couldn't do at the start of the year, which I am really pleased with.
- Nothing to explain, all my children have done very well at Stowlawn Primary school. Keep up the good work!
- This is a great school and great teachers and staff. I am proud of my daughter and the progress and confidence she has gained whilst being here.
- I am happy with my daughter and her work and I like that I can speak to you about anything I'm worried about
- I feel the children would benefit from more homework such as spellings and maths quizzes
- Haven't really had any issues with bothers as yet
- I don't get much information from the school regarding my daughter's development
- Good school
- The teacher reassured me with my concerns about my daughter's report and feel she will have the correct support in place to help her with confidence and contribution to class
- My daughter is very happy at School. She has never had any issues with bullying and enjoys playing with her friends. She manages to balance her school work as well as participating in extra curriculum activities.
- Make sure you make my son bring homework when he finishes school. Thank you.
- My son joined Stowlawn in Y4, ever since; he has excelled in all subjects. A big thank you for all the support from everyone, especially Mrs x and Mrs x -We're going to miss you .
- Hardly coming out with homework
- My daughter has enjoyed this year at school. She has mentioned many times that she likes having Miss x as a teacher. A few occasions my daughter has come home crying about being picked on but Miss x has always been very helpful and always approachable for my daughter and us as her parents.
